Terms & Conditions:

1. Stallholders are required to supply their own tables, chairs, equipment, supplies, gazebo, etc.
2. All stallholders are expected to adhere to the rules and regulations of the St Patrick's CBC Market Day.
3. All stallholders should be set-up and ready for trade at 09h00 on the day of the market.
4. Applicants are only permitted to sell those items of merchandise which are specified on their application form and which have been approved by the Organisers.
5. Should any stall holder add items onto their stall that is not stipulated on their original application form without prior consent, the Organiser reserves the right to ask the stall holder to remove these products.
6. The Organiser reserves the right to request any stall holder causing a disturbance to cease trading and vacate the premises with immediate effect.
7. Stallholders are to ensure that their site is always attended, clean, presentable, professional and safe and all displays are contained within the set site parameters.

8. Food vendors are responsible for the supply of their own electrical power leads and equipment, which must comply with the necessary Health and Safety requirements. Occupational Health and Safety is the personal responsibility of stallholders to protect their own and others' safety.
9. Stallholders are to represent themselves and the market in a professional, safe and courteous manner and to not engage in behaviour that brings the reputation of St Patrick's CBC and the market into disrepute.
10. The Organiser, at their own discretion, may allow any trader to sell and approve any items to be sold at the market.
11. St Patrick's CBC Market reserves the right to remove any fixture that has not gained the prior approval of the Organiser or that may pose a problem for other stallholders.
12. Acceptance of a receipt will serve as agreement of these rules.
